THE LEXINGTON TROT.

The Coming Contest between Nancy Hanks and Allerton.

The eyes of every trotting horseman are now turned toward Lexington, where the greatest meeting ever held will begin Monday, October 12th, and continue through the week.

The Association has acted wisely in offering an excellent programme on the first day, when the ladies will be admitted free. On that day the crack two-year-olds meet and horsemen predict that the winner will beat 2:20. As this is the only race in which they (Monbars, Ralph Wilkes and Annoreen) meet, the crowd to see them is certain to be large. On Tuesday comes the Transylvania Stake, worth at least $5,000; on Thursday the only race ever trotted between horses with records better than 2:10—Nancy Hanks 2:09 and Allerton 2:09—will be fought out. This will be the race of the decade if not of century, and every body should go to see it, no matter at what cost. On Saturday the four-year-old stake, in which Dr. Sparks, Happy Bee, Belle Archer and Valliant meet will be almost as important; and Saturday's programme is one of the week. The meeting as a whole has never had an equal, and every body should read the programme and go to the meeting.

Height of Cruelty.

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunate is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and drooping. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequalled. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" and marvelous testimonials free. Sold and guaranteed by J. W. Gayle.

Happy Valley.

Mr. George Samples and Miss Lizzie Moore eloped from this neighborhood and were married in Jeffersonville, Indiana, last Tuesday week.

Died—Mr. Charles Lee, on Saturday, September 12th, with consumption.

Born—September 29th, 1891, to Mr. Archie Moore and wife, a fine daughter.

Mrs. Charity Kendall, of Scabble, Shelby county, is visiting her daughter in this neighborhood.

Miss Laura Pulliam, who has been sick for sometime, is very ill at this writing.

Mrs. Lydia Harrod, of Kansas, is visiting in this neighborhood and enjoyed meeting many of her old friends on Saturday last.

Died—Miss Sallie Harrod, on the 23rd of August, with consumption. She leaves a father, mother, three sisters, three brothers and many friends to mourn her loss. She was a conscientious, kind-hearted young lady and will be sadly missed. She was willing to die, and those who mourn her death are not without hope. May they all prepare to meet her in a better world. The funeral was largely attended, the services being conducted by Rev. J. A. Peters.

Mrs. Jeffrey Allison is quite ill with fever.

The Irish Corporal.

The newest of the war dramas, opened up its week's engagement at Haylin's yesterday afternoon before an enthusiastic audience. Dealing as it does with the loves, ambitions and hates of a little coterie of Northerners and Southerners over Mason and Dixon's line, the recommendation of extreme novelty can not be given it. But for being a first class comedy drama, having plenty of excitement stirred in with the fun and pathos, it can be set down as a success. Jerry Donavan is an Irish lad at work on the farm of Joel Osborne in Connecticut. Jerry owns a happy disposition, a capital voice and a face equal to any emergency. He is head over ears in love with Cella, who also works for the family, and their trials and troubles make up the comedy of the play. Lawrence, the son of old Joel Osborne, enlisted as a Federal soldier and is made Captain of his company. He, of course, falls in love with a Southern beauty, and Leonard Warrington, a brave Southerner, becomes smitten with the charms of a Northern girl. Both couple, after the proper amount of running, death gauntlets, disguising and escaping from cold prison cells, are properly united, and the curtain drops on happy faces as it should. Jerry, the red faced Corporal, is of course the life of the play. F. Gordon Meade does the character with a happy-go-lucky, jaunty style, and is ably seconded in his attempts to please the house by Belores, in Gella. Belores is a soubrette of no little ability, has a pretty voice and is well received. In its general plot recalls memories of both "Held by the Enemy" and "Shenandoah."—St. Louis Post Democrat.

The Frankfort Furniture Manufacturing Company has been organized, with Messrs. Jos. T. Staten, A. W. Cromwell, C. W. Chamberlain, W. C. Leutkemeler and J. M. Wakefield as the incorporators. The factory building will be erected on Holmes street and they are expecting to have it in operation about the first of January.

The Harris Benefit.

As Mr. Louie Harris, a promising young violinist of this city, will leave in a short time for Cincinnati for the purpose of completing his musical education at the College of Music in that city, Prof. Wayland Graham and a number of ladies and gentlemen of the city have determined to tender him a complimentary benefit at the Opera House at some time within the next ten days, the proceeds to be used in aiding him to prosecute his musical studies. As Louie has been very kind and accommodating in giving his services free of charge at all entertainments and in Church choirs, he should have a full house. A fine programme is being arranged by Prof. Graham and the date of the concert will be announced in a few days.

The Medical Profession.

The attitude of the medical profession toward what is known as "patent medicine" is not at all unreasonable. Thousands of these nostrums are offered to the public every year. Some of them are dangerous, and most of them are futile. Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), we are all glad to say, is not classed among these nostrums. It has overcome the wholesome prejudices of physicians in all parts of the country, and some of the strongest testimonials in its behalf come from medical men who have used it in their practice, and who do not hesitate to endorse its wonderful results. This is extremely gratifying, but by no means astonishing, for every claim that is put forward in behalf of S. S. S. is based on a series of actual experiments extended over a long period of time.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning; the signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption? Ask yourself if you can afford, for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves cough and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. W. GAYLE.

FRANKFORT, OCT. 5, 1891.

'TIS FINISHED.

The Constitutional Convention Adjourned and the New Organic Law Now in Force.

Monday at noon, the Constitutional Convention, having completed the necessary changes in the new Constitution, the work of signing the new document began and was concluded about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when the Convention adjourned sine die. Just after the delegates began affixing their signatures a salute was fired from Fort Hill, announcing to the world that Kentucky's new organic law had gone into effect, and that hereafter the State would be governed by its provisions.

During the signing of the Constitution Senator J. C. S. Blackburn and Gen. Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, entered the hall, were introduced to the Convention by Gov. Knott, and invited to take seats by the side of President Clay. Gen. Hampton afterwards made a short speech to the Convention. The usual resolutions of thanks were adopted, the enrolled and signed document was presented to the Secretary of State, and the Constitutional Convention of 1890-91 was no more.

After the Convention adjourned, Hon. W. R. Ramsey, delegate from Laurel and Rockcastle counties, who enrolled the new Constitution upon parchment, was presented with a handsome silver water pitcher, by the Convention and by some of the delegates a beautiful gold pen. The pitcher was purchased from Mrs. M. A. Selbert, of St. Clair street jeweler, and bore the following inscription.

W. R. Ramsey,
From the Constitutional Convention
Of 1890-91
For Enrolling on Parchment the New Constitution,
Sept. 28, 1891.

Mr. C. D. Bercaw.

We learn that our friend, Charley Bercaw, who has been connected with the L. & N. Railroad at this point for the past six years, is now in the western part of Colorado, trying to regain his health, which has been quite poor for some time. Although he has not been engaged in the service for some months, the Frankfort shippers will remember his efforts to secure for them the best obtainable rates which those versed in such matters can often do, by various combinations of through and local business. The general public will also remember his many accommodations in filing claims, preventing overcharges, etc. During his stay here he filled every position at the L. & N. depot from the head to foot, with great credit. We are informed that he could have secured a responsible position with the Kentucky Midland Railroad had he so desired. His services were also sought by the largest manufacturing concern in the city, but devoted to Mr. Bryan, he declined to leave the L. & N. until forced to do so by ill health. He was prominently mentioned in connection with the agency of the L. & N. here upon the recent promotion of Mr. Bryan.

We wish him a speedy return to health in his far away home, and hope that he will be with us again at an early date.

Historic Table.

Mr. Clarence L. Walker, Stenographic reporter for the Constitutional Convention, purchased from the State Librarian the table he used in reporting the proceedings of the Convention and upon which all of the delegates except two—President Clay and another whose name we failed to learn—affixed their names to the new Constitution, and presented it to the Kentucky Historical Society Monday afternoon.

Held Over.

The examining trial of John and Joe Gill, the two Henry county negroes arrested for the murder of Charles McFall at Jett's Station, was begun before Judge B. G. Williams on Monday. The defense was represented by Hon. James Andrew Scott, of this city, and W. B. Moody, Esq., of New Castle, and the Commonwealth by County Attorney L. F. Johnson. A large number of witnesses were examined on both sides and the case was not concluded until Tuesday afternoon, when the Judge held the Joe Gill over in $2000 to the next term of Circuit Court, which convenes on the third Monday in this month and discharged John.

Trotters Burned.

The training stable of Mr. R. H. Wilson, near Woodlake, this county, was destroyed by fire Sunday morning. The stable boys had just fed the horses and had started to the house to breakfast when they heard one of the horses making an unusual noise in his stall, turned back to see what was the matter when the stable was seen to be on fire. They ran back and made every effort to save the sixteen horses which were in the stable, but the fire made such rapid progress that only four could be gotten out—the remaining twelve perished in the flames. Only one of the horses in the stable belonged to Mr. Wilson and that was saved—the balance being owned by other parties and were in his hands to be trained.

Messrs. Traub, of Louisville, had four horses there, only one of which was saved—one of those burned being valued at $5,000; Mr. George F. Berry, of this city, also owned one of those burned, two were owned by parties in Louisville, and several by Paris parties.

Mr. Wilson lost, in addition to the stable, six sets of harness, a lot of hay, oats, blankets, horse boots, &c., and valued the whole at about $2,000, upon which he had only $800 insurance.

Cut His Hand Off.

The notorious negro convict, King Bird, confined in the Penitentiary, who killed a fellow convict some time ago, was called before the Warden on Saturday on account of not doing his work in the broom shop properly, and admonished that if he did not do better he would be punished. After the reprimand he was sent back to work. When he entered the broom shop he deliberately went to the cutting machine used for trimming brooms, raised up the knife, put his left hand under it and chopped it off at the wrist. He then walked over to the hospital, where the arm was amputated between the wrist and elbow by Dr. Tobin, the Prison physician.

Join the great procession! It marches to victory! It knows no defeat! Inscribed on its banners is the inspiring battle-cry, "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery." Its line of march extends across the continent and around the world! A happy illustration of the popularity and success of this world-famous remedy. 'Tis everywhere relieving pain, inspiring hope, curing diseases! For all blood disorders it is acknowledged the safest, the most thorough, the best! The liver and kidneys respond at once to the invigorating touch; through them the whole system is cleansed and built up anew.

If you are sick, indisposed, debilitated, weak, suffering from malarial or other poisons, you'll find the "Golden Medical Discovery" the remedy par excellence to restore you.

Ate Poisonous Berries.

Little Julia Murray, daughter of Mr. Henry C. Murray, got hold of the berries of a Virginia Creeper, which was growing beside a grape vine at the residence of her grandfather, Col. Thomas Rodman, Monday afternoon, and thinking they were grapes ate them. She carried some of them to her mother, saying she had found some grapes, when she was promptly given an emetic, which caused her to throw everything off of her stomach, and perhaps saved her life, as the berries were pronounced poisonous by several pharmacists who examined them.

DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED.

Another Shooting Upon an Excursion Train.

A Lady the Victim.

The train which left Louisville Thursday night, after the parade of the Satellites of Mercury, was crowded and people were standing up in the aisles. In one of the cars, in which were a number of Frankfort people, a negro man was sitting in a chair, while white ladies were standing up near him. A white man went to him and asked him to give a lady the chair, which he refused to do and the two had some words about it, the negro finally getting up and going out upon the forward platform, but in a few minutes after, when the train was about seven miles out from Louisville, opened the door of the car aimed a pistol in the direction of where the white man had been standing and fired the ball striking Miss Tenie McEwan, of this city, in the face, passing through her left cheek and lodging in her neck, inflicting a dangerous wound. She was sitting in a seat with her sister, Miss Carrie McEwan, and Mr. Owen Furr, and was leaning forward when shot, the ball, a 32-calibre, ranging down. The negro jumped from the train and made his escape after firing the shot. At Lagrange a physician was called in and staunch the flow of blood from the wound, and Miss McEwan was brought to her home in this city, where she is lying in a critical condition and is suffering great pain.

This thing of people being shot and killed upon excursion trains is becoming entirely too common, and the railroad companies owe it to their patrons to take vigorous steps towards putting a stop to it. Such trains should be provided with officers empowered with authority to make arrests at any point upon the line, and men found to be under the influence of liquor should promptly be put off the train.

A man, white or black, who draws a pistol or attempts to use the same in a car where there are women and children deserves to be thrown from the window while the train is at full speed, or hung from the platform. Such brutes are not fit to live and the world would be better off if they were sent out of it.

The wounded young lady is a daughter of the late Alex. McEwan and a sister of Rev. W. L. McEwan, of Wilmington, Delaware.

Nothing like it—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's as peculiar in its composition, as in its curative effects, in all the diseases and disorders that afflict womankind. It's a legitimate medicine—an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nerve, and a positive remedy for female weakness and ailments. All functional disturbances, irregularities, and derangements are cured by it. There's nothing like it in the way it acts—there's nothing like it in the way it's sold. It's guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or the money paid for it is promptly refunded.

"The Hired Farm Hand."

DIAMOND P. BENTLEY'S LATEST POETIC REFUSION.

There is no hired farm hand beneath the cloud's beams
That hears the wild mule kick and paw as he dreams.
As he turns over the golden stubble clods
Bumble-bees upon his back put their heads.
Hired farm hands are often called tramps,
Many a one looks for work until he cramps.
Our savior but no place to lay his head,
And a farm hand is chased until he is dead.
The hired man sees morning stars bring setting sun,
And his feet with the purple clouds are on the run.
The hired man's night stars make the twilight dead,
And he feels sleeping winds before he goes to bed.
Why is the hired farm hand always kept back,
And never go with the sweet rich in the back?
Look at the hired dule-headed clerk to-day,
That took amongst the rich to have a day.
The preachers always eat chicken with the rich man,
And the poor man they often shun if they can.
The poor man will always be called a host,
When scorn and pride will be laid beneath our feet.
When a poor man under the moonlight sod falls,
The rich give him or her many calls.
But when the rich man in his purple car dies
The great crowd moves upon the flowery green and cries.
Where the jury with trembling hands upraised,
They often make a verdict that God never praised.
Where the poor man is led to jail by the collar,
And the rich man is decorated with his rattling dollar.
Can the fair blue Heavens tell the poor man to rise,
And in the purple twilight you must not despise.
When the purple Heavens cool his brow
And the silver moon falls, there will be no row.
When death's muted voice hushes him from the restless twilight,
And the golden-armed birds cheer his grave at night.
And the sleeping ocean's moonlight that steals above,
Where the angel's voice will meet him like a tutored grove.

DIAMOND P. BENTLEY.

Will be Out Next Week.

Mr. W. L. Coppersmith, the jeweler, who has been confined to bed for the past month, is now convalescent, and hopes to be able to attend to business by the middle of next week. To the friends who left work with him before he was taken sick, and to which he was unable to attend on account of illness, he wishes to say that he hopes they will not fail to call in the future, when he guarantees to give them good work and prompt attention. He has had quite a severe attack of fever, but is now on rising ground and will soon be all right again. Don't forget him when you have work in his line.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Gorton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at PHIL. CARPENTER'S Drug Store, regular price, 90c, and $1.00. 45

A Mystery Explained.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and couchmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced, usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immediate crying or laughing. These show a weak nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Trial bottles and a fine book containing many marvelous cures, free at J. W. Gayle's, who also sells and guarantees Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure the finest of heart tonics. "Nerves fluttering, short breath, etc." 6

A Wonderful Production.

According to promise, we publish in another column the latest "pome" from the pen of the only Col. Diamond Bentley. It has been delayed for several weeks, as the Colonel wished to file off the edges and trim up the corners before giving it to the public, but it goes off this week in great shape. Nothing like it was ever seen before and is written in a style exclusively the Colonel's and upon which he has a copy right. Read it. It is a blooming daisy, wonderful to behold.

Pleasureville.

The M. D.'s are very busy now.

We are glad to note that Mr. Sam Riner, wife and daughter, are improving nicely under the skillful treatment of Dr. Geo. Jesse.

Mrs. Wm. A. Duncan has been on the sick list in Shelby county for a few days.

Uncle Dick Kitson and wife have returned home from quite an extensive tour to Mt. Sterling and other points of interest.

Walter and Oscar Clark, of Bagdad, left Monday last for the Lone Star State of Texas, where they will make their home in the future.

R. O. Bryant, of Bagdad station, quite a popular gentleman, has bought out the entire stock of dry goods, boots, shoes, groceries, etc. of Geo. Stenmons, of North Pleasureville, and will be found at his post with yard stick in hand and ready to baffle them with Christian fortitude.

On Tuesday evening at 1 past 1 o'clock, in the town of Pleasureville, Porter Stenmons breathed his last. Porter had been a constant sufferer for several years. Notwithstanding his sufferings were intense, he bore them with Christian fortitude. His funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. J. Johnson, of the M. E. Church, from the 3d verse and 20th chapter, Sam'l. After which his remains were entered in the Cemetery at this point. We are well assured of the fact that Porter now inhabits that celestial chine.
